THE VIRGINIAN 1971

PUBLISHED 1971
THE VIRGINIAN STAFF
VIRGINIA HIGH SCHOOL
BRISTOL, VIRGINIA

The 1971 VIRGINIAN presents
 our world of freedom.
 Freedom of speech and expression
 guided by decency and responsibility.
 Freedom to try the new innovations
 and to question traditions.
 Freedom of motion displayed by athletes who have modified their personal freedom to prepare for contests.
 Freedom to loaf and be lazy
 or to work and reach new heights of achievement.
 Freedom to enter into activities;
 to take part in special events;
 to share with special people.
 Freedom of individuality.
 FREEDOM . . . to live.

FREEDOM OF INVOLVEMENT IN STUDENT LIFE

INDIVIDUAL USE OF FREEDOM IN THE COMMUNITY

DEDICATION

Walking into a room cluttered with pictures, newspapers, magazines and books is a unique experience at Virginia High. Very few classrooms are kept equipped with contemporary materials and such an assortment of books as hers is.

Everything that is studied in textbooks is supplemented by excerpts from material she has painstakingly and dutifully saved. Each day is brightened with her discussions, ideas, and enthusiasm, but the fifty-five minutes allotted never seem to be enough. As she once said in class, "I have all these grandiose ideas, and then the bell rings."

As much enthusiasm as she displays in the classroom one would think she would not have enough energy left to attend outside activities and meetings in the evenings. But she can be found at many games and extracurricular activities supporting our school as much as any student.

She received an A.B. degree from Berea College and continued her education at the University of Virginia, the University of North Carolina, and East Tennessee State University to complete the requirements for her M.A. She presently is chairman of the C.A. Belcher Scholarship Committee, head of the English Department, and a teacher of sophomore and senior English.

We dedicate the 1971 Virginian to this unique person, Mrs. Doris Booth.

FREEDOM OF INVOLVEMENT IN STUDENT LIFE

As individuals,
we have the freedom
to participate in activities that hold a special attraction for us.

Freedom to take advantage of the opportunities offered;
to experience the feeling of pride to explore the vast regions of our imaginations.

Freedom to work together;
to become better acquainted with our friends and neighbors,
the town in which we live.

Freedom to co-operate;
to do the best we can
with our abilities.

Freedom . . . to become involved,
to become a special part of V.H.S.

THE 1970 JUNIOR- SENIOR PROM

d ►

Anticipation of that special invitation; trying to decide what to wear. The many hours spent in making decorations. "Soul sounds," black lights, and an evening when the hours slip by too fast.

(a) Some couples take a break and watch the action on the floor. (b) Mr. Outlaw "takes care" of the refreshments. (c) Fred Tate and Sherry Thomas are two of the hard working students who helped decorate for the 1970 prom. (d) Couples "do their own thing" to the great sound of the Divites. (e) The action continues in spite of the crowded conditions. (f) Many art students take part in producing the murals for decorations.

Formal attire, mixed emotions.
Receiving awards, being recognized for the achievements and progress made in the four years we've attended V.H.S.
Being together with the class as a whole for one of the last times.

(a) Senior Class officers man the head table to keep an eye on those up front. (b) Senior Banquet is one of the last times the Class of '70 gathers before graduation. (c) Guests stand for seniors leaving Baccalaureate. (d) Members of Concert Choir sing at Baccalaureate.

BACCALAUREATE

Many hours spent practicing at State Street Church
for Baccalaureate,
where to sit, which aisle to take,
who to follow.
And then, finally,
the awe and reverence
of baccalaureate service itself.

GRADUATION

The rustle of caps and gowns.
Listening to the guest speakers.
Hearing your name called and going up to receive your long awaited diploma.
Many shed tears of nervousness,
happiness, regret, anticipation,
and good-bye.

TIDBITS

b ▲

d ▼

(a) Many students were excused from school to hear President Nixon's speech at E.T.S.U. (b) Freshmen work on a series of tiring tests. (c) Senior girls talk with Randolph-Macon representative and former V.H.S. student, Peggy Parks. (d) Juniors had an opportunity to participate in the College Day program. (e) The SCA has an open meeting with Dr. Hislop and Mr. Anderson to discuss exam procedures. (f) Faculty cheerleaders actively support their team. (g) Coach Watford and Larry Salyers jump for the ball in the Student-Faculty game sponsored by the Latin Club.

EXPRESSIONS

V-T WEEK

PEP!! . . .

Halls full of decorations;
skits and pep rallies held throughout the week.

Cheering in the halls, riding through Viking territory in the car parade.

Yelling at the bonfire, trying to keep your place in the Snake Dance.

Receiving a corsage,
going to the highlight of the week — the V. T. Game.
and returning home with victory or . . . tears.

Each year the Virginian staff sponsors a Miss Virginian contest with competition open to any senior girl who submits her picture to the staff.

This year twenty-six pictures were submitted, and our judge was Mr. David Hartman of NBC's The Bold Ones. Mr. Hartman was in Bristol as part of the 1971 March of Dimes Telethon.

In making his selection Mr. Hartman said:

The girls are lovely - please give them all my very best. I'm sorry there has to be a 1-2-3-4. Would love to see a copy of your annual if it's possible. Thank you so much for letting me be a part of your year. Sincerely,
David Hartman

CHEERLEADERS

The 1970-1971 V.H.S. cheerleaders are undoubtedly the best yet to represent our school in state competition. They won various awards, including best squad, at a cheerleaders' camp in Virginia Beach. This year's cheerleaders, with fantastic school spirit and the ability to project it, aroused and strengthened our school spirit . . . They have truly given V.H.S. something to be very proud of.

The Virginia High Bearcats suffered a disappointing season as they went 2-8 for the season. In the opening game Bearcats met the Trojan's of Battle High and lost a hard fought contest. In the second game of the season the Cats really looked good but lost by only one point to highly rated Graham. As the season developed the 'Cats could not quite put it all together, as they emerge defeated 80% of the games. Most games, however, were closer than the scores indicated. The Bearcats defeated two good S.W. district teams. The Abingdon game, 7-6, was a tough game played in the mud. The talents of Butch Shelton and Joe Perry put us on the scoreboard, as Shelton broke loose for a touchdown and Perry made the extra point. The Richlands game, 32-12, was a well earned victory.

Virginia High's '70-'71 varsity basketball team was an exciting and unpredictable ball club. Early in the season, forecasters predicted the Bearcats to finish in the cellar of the SWD. But as the season progressed, Virginia High proved to be a contender for the crown, eventually finishing third in the district.

The Bearcats were blessed with plenty of individual talent. Senior Bruce Meade was a stand-out ballhandler and shooter. James Pender, dubbed "Jumping James" by area sportswriters, was a consistent performer all season. Mike Foote, a junior, provided the Bearcats with plenty of rebounds. Other stand-outs were Steve Smith, Raphael Cansler, Leonard Bowers, and Harlon King.

ART CLUB

Decorating the school for special events, art exhibits, and display work kept the Art Club members busy all year. One very special and popular project with everyone is the designing and painting of the gigantic mural for the annual Spring Festival. Field trips sponsored by the club help art students to become acquainted with and develop an appreciation for the many cultural offerings of our community.

BETA CLUB

The Beta Club is a national organization with membership consisting of students who have exemplified scholarship, leadership, and character. This year there are fifty-eight members from the junior and senior classes.

The club has at least two service projects each year and various other projects to help pay the cost of the state convention.

The Virginia High School Distributive Education program functions within the framework of the overall curriculum of the school. It is a program which is a cooperative enterprise, using both the facilities of the school and the marketing and merchandising resources of the community. Because most of the student placements have been in retail establishments, the instructional program has been developed to a great extent in this area. The program is concerned with the realm of distribution and not entirely with the beginning positions in retailing which, inevitably, are the initiating experiences for the majority of students seeking a career in distribution.

DRAMA CLUB

◀ b

The primary purpose of the Drama Club is to provide an opportunity to learn and participate for all those interested in the production of plays, either as actors or crew workers. This year the Drama Club has undertaken several noteworthy projects, one of which is the production of "You Can't Take It With You." In this manner the club presents plays that are worthy of the attention of the school and the city of Bristol; and also nurture an interest in the performing arts at VHS.

FREEDOM AS AN INDIVIDUAL

Freedom to be an individual.
Freedom to dress with the time
midi skirts, mini skirts, false fur, no make-up look,
flowered shirts, long hair.
Freedom to laugh, to cry,
to shout with joy;
to stare in wonderment,
to search within oneself
for meaning and purpose.
Freedom to be outgoing and friendly or to be quiet, shy, or alone;
to behave the way
one thinks is right,
to have an open mind
and one's own ideas.
Freedom . . . to be an individual
and not a stereotype.

FREEDOM OF ESTABLISHMENT

Freedom to have our accomplishments, reached in the four years
we've attended V.H.S., cited and acknowledged.
To remember throughout the years
what organizations and activities we participated in.
Freedom to patronize our town,
to make it "A good place to live."
Freedom to become responsible citizens,
to make use of the facilities available.
Freedom to respect
the private property of others,
to keep our town clean
and respectable,
to uphold the law
and respect our country, our flag.
Freedom . . . to take with us
the ideals and values we acquired at V.H.S.

At this point
in the VIRGINIAN,
the story
of the school year
has been completed.
We have tried to depict in picture
the FREEDOM
each has had within our school
and community.
These freedoms
will continue to be ours
only as we measure up to our individual responsibilities.

Miss Susan Shipley, Editor
